Erickson Immigration Group

Uncomplicating the Complicated with Excellent Corporate Immigration Services

The process of immigration is complicated and time-consuming and can require hundreds of hours to file visa applications, facilitate transfers, and handle the PERM process. The legal immigration space has also experienced challenging delays and backlogs in the past decades due to the pandemic and varying immigration policies. But through it all, Erickson Immigration Group (EIG) has provided outstanding service and best-in-class technology with their full line of business immigration solutions and global immigration management services for companies of all sizes.

EIG's clients rely on the firm's expertise for non-immigrant and immigrant visa services, citizenship and naturalization, immigration program management and compliance managed from EIG's US and global offices and its extensive international practice. EIG initiates transfer of its clients' employees worldwide and implements cohesive and compliant business travel strategies for enterprise-level organizations, focusing exclusively on employment-based immigration. It provides corporate clients with creative solutions to employ the best and brightest foreign national employees worldwide. The firm also streamlines processes to simplify the immigration experience and ensure foreign nationals and their families have a clear pathway through their immigration journey.

"The EIG team consists of top legal minds with years of experience in the industry, including former Obama appointees, former high-level State Department employees, law professors, and dedicated employees who are extremely committed to the client experience. EIG has worked with renowned companies around the world across various industries like technology, finance, entertainment, and hospitality, and serves as true partner instead of just another vendor," says Hiba Mona Anver, shareholder at EIG.

A hallmark of EIG's approach is the firm's "Perfect Plus" service model, with an emphasis on proactive guidance for clients. Its goal is to ensure that clients are aware of all the steps involved in their immigration journey and prepared for any new developments. EIG acts as a strategic partner and works with clients to identify their requirements, changes in the industry, and government policies impacting their program to provide real-time proactive guidance, including for the immigration-related implications of M&A and corporate restructuring like reduction in force.

EIG's proactive partnership with its clients was never more evident than during the pandemic. EIG guided clients through this unprecedented global event to seamlessly adopt new corporate policies, shifting to remote work and work for home, to adhere to the latest CDC recommendations. EIG partnered with clients by offering alerts and townhalls on immigration-related actions, and timely guidance on how to manage travel concerns for US and global employees, who suddenly faced new hurdles and considerations if they would be traveling. The industry looked to EIG as a trusted legal resource and knowledgeable expert throughout the COVID-19 pandemic and into the return to a "new" and more nomadic normal.

EIG is uncomplicating the complicated immigration process to help people realize their professional goals worldwide. Its dynamic and dedicated team of experienced attorneys, paralegals, and assistants, partners with clients and their foreign nationals to achieve professional goals. EIG offers practical guidance and solutions that elevate clients' service and experience in the mobility industry. HR
